

Gender & Popular Culture

October 21-22, 2005

1650-1750

Michigan League, Hussey Room
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

A special exhibit of historical materials related to the conference theme will be on display at the Clements Library through January 2006

Friday, October 21

9:15 - 11:30 : Theatre and Popular Culture

Paula Backscheider, Auburn University
William Warner, UC Santa Barbara

1:15 - 3:30 : Oral Traditions

Paula McDowell, Rutgers University
Ruth Perry, MIT

4:00 - 6:15: Women and Politics

Rachel Weil, Cornell University
Mary Beth Norton, Cornell University

Saturday, October 22

9:15 - 11:30: Vice and Virtue

Frances Dolan, UC Davis
Robert Shoemaker, University of Sheffield

1:15 - 3:30: Courtship, Marriage, and Childrearing

John Richetti, University of Pennsylvania
Anthony Fletcher, University of London

4:00 - 6:15: Popular Entertainments

Bernard Capp, University of Warwick
Jane Spencer, University of Exeter

Amatory and adventure fiction • Popular theatre • Politics of mass culture • Alehouse culture
Religion and religious imagery • Childrearing practices • Political plots, conspiracies, and uprisings
Ballads and ballad singers • Conduct books • Crime and criminal biography
Canons and anti-cans • Gender and social space • Caricature and popular satire
Women and politics • The idea of oral tradition

Registration available online or at the door
For complete program and other information, please visit

<http://www.umich.edu/~gpcconf> or email gpcconf@umich.edu

